- Bonjour!
- My name is Ian Jones and I am the writer of A Stitch in Time.
- And my name is Lynn Harwood and I'm the director.
- The three words to describe our film.
- One, fuddy.
- Two, it's funny.
- And it's moving.
- I wrote this film for my two nieces because I wanted to make them laugh.
We both were doing history at school at the time and I remember that when I was at school, I used to live at the Bay of Tapestry.
So, it always reminded me at the time that it was just like a film.
- I became a filmmaker because I love films.
I've always watched films and I love telling stories.
And I've made lots and lots of short films and I've made two feature films so far and I'm just about to shoot another one.
So, I'm really looking forward to coming and watching A Stitch in Time on the big screen with you.
- Hope you enjoy our film.
- A bientôt!
